New York Millionaire Paid $30,000 for Troroughbred and Since the Memphis Meeting Everything Has Been Coming His Way.

McChesney is a profitable asset for E. E. Smathers, As nearly as can be figured out from reports of winnings which Mr. Smathers has not denied the horse has netted him a profit of over $100,000 this

Mr. Smathers paid $30,000 for McChes-ney, which had shown great winnings or his former owners. He bet $10,000 in the winter books that McChesney would win the Montgomery Handicap in the spring. McChesney lost and stood Mr. Smathers then $40,000.

All Coming In. Since that time it has all been coming in. One of the biggest coups ever made on a race track was accomplished by Smathers when McChesney wor the Harlem Handicap. He bet the book makers to a standstill, winning $88,000

Since bringing the horse East Mr. Smathers had not bet on him until yesterday, when he won the Twin City Handicap. McChesney's owner does not deny that he bet $25,000 and got an verage of 2 to 1 for his money. Winnings Total $149,500.

This brings the total of his winning for this season up to $149,500. Against this is the original cost of the horse and the amount lost at Memphis, leav-of course, McChesney is an expensive horse to keep, but his expenses figure in with the expenses of the stable. It would probably cost Mr. Smathers as much to maintain his string if he did

To say that the town across the North Edver is baseball-mad is not an exaggeration. The "Skeeters" have a big jeed in the race for the pennant now and the "rag" is cinched. Loyal New York are may well envy the happy Jerssyttes. The vicinity of New York has not had a hamplonship team in thirteen years. It was up to Jersey City to get one and the got it.

Next year he is going to be a Giant.
